From the Pastor’s Desk

The devastation wrought by Hurricane Harvey is almost beyond imagination. I hope that everyone in the parish will continue to keep the people of Texas and the gulf coast region in your prayers. If you have family or friends affected by this storm, please assured your loved ones of these prayers.

I wanted to give the parish an update from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on the situation in the affected region. The following statement was issued on August 28th:

WASHINGTON—U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ (USCCB) president, Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo of Galveston-Houston, has called for prayers and solidarity with those impacted by Hurricane Harvey. Cardinal DiNardo also called on all people of good will to closely monitor future calls for assistance for victims and survivors in the days ahead.

Cardinal DiNardo’s full statement follows.

“Hurricane Harvey hit the Gulf Coast in a catastrophic and devastating way this weekend, bringing with it severe flooding and high winds which have taken human life, caused countless injuries, and severely damaged homes and property throughout the region. The effects of this storm continue to put people in harm’s way, with horrific scenes playing out all around, such as those of people trapped on their rooftops as water continues to rise around them. Many dioceses of the Church in the United States have been affected; many others will be as the storm continues.

As the Archbishop of Galveston-Houston, this crisis hits very close to home. In solidarity with my brother bishops in this area of the country, I call on people of faith to pray for all of those who have been impacted by this Hurricane, and I ask people of good will to stand with the victims and their families. May God, the Lord of mercy and compassion, protect all who are still in danger, and bring to safety those who are missing. May He care in a special way for those who were already homeless, or without support and resources, before this disaster. We pray in thanksgiving for the first responders who are risking their lives to save others at this very moment. We include in our intentions the everyday heroes reaching out to help their neighbors in need, those who, like the Good Samaritan, cannot walk by a person in need without offering their hand in aid.

The USCCB is working closely with affected local dioceses, Catholic Charities USA and St. Vincent de Paul, along with other relief organizations, to assess the needs on the ground. In the next couple of days, we will share more about the best ways to assist those in the Gulf region with material needs based on the latest information we can gather. May God bless you and your families this day and always.

You can give directly through Catholic Charities USA via their website https://catholiccharitiesusa.org/ and donation button https://app.mobilecause.com/vf/CCUSADISASTER

As with past natural disasters in the United States, there will be coordinated efforts by Catholic Charities, USA, in the disaster area, and there could also be local efforts taken here in the Quad Cities and the Diocese of Davenport to help those affected by Hurricane Harvey. Bishop Zinkula will provide some guidance in the coming days, and in light of his guidance, our parish will then plan how we can help.

Our Lady of Victory, please pray for all victims of Hurricane Harvey.

When you have a special need or wish to know that someone cares, the Communion of Saints Circle will join their prayers with yours.

Christian Service Ministry

Sign up sheets will be in the Gathering Space this weekend for the Sept. 24th Food, Fun and Fellowship with guest speakers talking about issues that our older generation has to deal with. Anyone over 55 yrs of age are welcome to come, enjoy a ham dinner and listen and ask questions of our Senior Panel. This will be in the Parish Center at 12:30 PM. Please sign up so we can prepare enough food for your enjoyment.

Stewardship Moment

In their pastoral letter on stewardship, the U.S. Bishops warn us about conforming to the destructive “isms” at work in our culture—materialism, individualism, and consumerism. Stewardship focuses our dependence on God and calls us to generously share what we have with others. This focus goes against our culture’s emphasis on independence and individualism. Practicing stewardship constitutes a way of life that is both privileged and challenging.

Trivia Night Fundraiser

Trivia Night - September 29th at the Knights of Columbus Hall. We’re hosting a trivia night to support the teens attending NCYC this fall, and it will be our last fundraiser before the trip! The Knights of Columbus are offering a matching donation of up to $2000 in addition to whatever we raise, so get your teams ready for fun, and sign up with your teens now! We are also hosting a silent auction and 50/50 raffle, so there will be lots of ways to win! We are now accepting donations for the auction, if you’ve got something cool you want to put out there!
OLV Foundation

The 2017 Foundation Annual Report is available now on our Foundation Facts page at www.olvjfk.com. All those contributing gifts in the 2016 calendar year are recognized in this publication. You will also find a recap of our financial growth and a listing of our growing numbers of 300 Club Members.

Theology Uncorked

We are starting a new initiative for our parents with teens which will coincide with our middle school youth nights on Fridays this year. Some parents asked why only “young adults” had Theology on Tap in the diocese, and we got to thinking a parents version would be a great ministry!

We are inviting parents of teens to join us for this new ministry on September 8th at 6pm in the Parish Center. More details to come at JFK parents meetings and through the Youth Ministry office, so stay tuned! And if this sounds like something you want to be a part of, with ideas for speakers, or other details contact Evan at 563-391-8384.

EMHC Scheduling

Jim Yackley will be in the back of church, after all masses, for all Eucharistic Ministers to update their availability for 2018, email address, phone numbers, extra info, and mailing address, if necessary.

Salvation Army Meal

The next meal for the hungry in downtown Davenport is Tuesday September 26th. We invite all parishioners to donate vegetables, potatoes, salads or desserts for this meal. Sign up in the Gathering Space (food suggestions are provided). Please bring your meals in disposable containers, and provide enough food to feed 10 to 12 people to the Parish Center on September 26th from 3 - 5:15 PM.
