Benefits: This is a chance to live your baptismal calling in your own home. It's impossible to underestimate the power of hospitality in a Christian home. A warm, welcoming environment, refreshments, and a joyful presence can mean the difference between the most popular discipleship group in the parish, and one that disbands within weeks due to low attendance. This is a fun opportunity to socialize, to engage in meaningful conversation, to grow in your own discipleship, and to grow in your relationships with the teens and adult facilitators.
